

ARMP Approach

Figure 5-1. Conceptual approach for recovery and management under the ARMP. Note that in the precautionary zone, fishing is only allowed in open fisheries that are subject to management under the ARMP. As densities decline, take levels are progressively reduced. Closed fisheries that are recovering will not be considered for reopening until the sustainable fishery density is reached.